

Missing Woman's Car Found In State College

POSTED: 1:14 pm EDT July 17, 2007

Police said they have found a car belonging to a Jefferson County woman whose home was gutted by fire nearly a week ago.

Joey Lynn Offutt's red Saturn was found on Waupelani Drive in State College on Monday.

Offutt has been missing since her Sykesville home caught on fire last Thursday. A baby's body was later found in the home's charred remains.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Pennsylvania State Police at 371-4652.
